Media and the public are invited to join Brentwood Town Centre in celebrating the Chinese New Year and the incoming Year of the Snake.

Everyone is invited to see the lion and dragon dance performance by internationally-travelled Yau Kung Moon Athletic Institute who jump to great heights using platforms, and also incorporate a martial arts demonstration. Be sure to arrive early to get the best viewing spot around Centre Court. Also, see three Chinese master artisans at work including a grasshopper maker, dough art maker and balloon twister near the children's play area. The event will close with good luck blessings to merchants by the Lucky Lion. See the lion as it receives heads of lettuce from participating merchants throughout the shopping centre.
